

11 BODIES FOUND IN MINE FIRE

Tonopah-Belmont Shaft, Where Fire Rages at Depth of 1160 Feet.

MINERS TRAPPED BY A SEETHING WALL OF FLAME

Terrific Conflagration in the Belmont Shaft at Tonopah, Nevada

TONOPAH, Nev., Feb. 24.—The rescue party in the Belmont mine which caught fire yesterday, found the bodies of eleven miners at the 1100-foot level of the mine today. Not all of the miners have been accounted for, and it is expected that more bodies will be found at the 1160-foot level. The fire has been extinguished. It did not cause any material damage to the mine.

Of the eleven bodies recovered, five are believed to be those of Americans and six of Slavs. They will not be brought to the surface until the following day, when the rescue party will be able to reach the level where the bodies are, and it is believed they will soon be reached. The men known to be missing from the Belmont mine are:

MANUEL CARDOZA, GEORGE DANDRO, ROBERT FRANKLIN, MICHAEL HANNAN, WILLIAM MURPHY, of Oakland. FRANK BURKE, C. H. DAVID, A. MAROVITZ. FIVE SLAVS, names unknown.

A party of volunteers, headed by William Ashburn Noel, entered the Belmont mine late today through the Desert-Queen shaft and will attempt to recover the dead. The scene at the mouth of the Belmont shaft, where fifteen rough boxes awaited the bringing of the remains of the victims to the surface, is a sad one. A great crowd of miners and their wives and children of the men entombed are heart rending. The whole town is in mourning, grief over the disaster being common to all. The state mining inspector arrived here today and will make an investigation into the cause of the disaster.

MONEY DAMAGE SMALL.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Nat. Boss, a broker of this city, who is heavily interested in the Belmont mine, received the following wire from Tonopah at noon today, from Superintendent Bradshaw: "The fire in the mine is out. Practically no money lost. Ten bodies have been recovered so far. All men working on the ground are compelled to carry accident insurance policies, which takes care of their families."

(Signed) "BRADSHAW." Boss has so far been unable to learn the cause of the blaze, his first telegram merely stating that the mine was on fire and that he knew how many were killed. H. C. Brougher, of Oakland, who is the heaviest stockholder on the Pacific Coast, received a wire similar to that sent to Boss, but containing no additional information.

RESULT OF LABORER IS BURNED IN SHACK FEARED

Railroad Heads Declare Commerce Commission's Ultimatum Means Reduction of Wages

Stock Market Demoralized, Prices Tumble and Thousands of Shares Are Sold

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—A meeting of the executive officers and general counsel of the railroads in the railroad classification territory has been called for Monday next in the city to determine what action shall be taken by the railroads in regard to the decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission in the freight rate cases.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 24.—George F. Baer, president of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company and also head of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, expressed great surprise in a statement given out today at the decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission. He says there will be a curtailment of railroad expenditures and that "if the result shall be to bring about a general reduction in wages and in material and supplies in the railroads, will suffer no more than the general public."

Mr. Baer's statement in part follows: "It has always seemed to me that the request of the railroads to be permitted to advance class rates was a most reasonable one in view of the enormous increase in expenses to which the railroads have been subjected. It seems to me the commission has not given due weight to the fact that the prosperity of the transportation companies is essential to the normal development of the country."

"If the result shall be to bring about a general reduction in wages and in material and supplies in the railroads, will suffer no more than the general public and in time all these things must correct themselves. I am a firm believer that economic laws in the end will prevail."

NEED REVENUE.

"The railroads cannot successfully operate their lines without sufficient revenue to enable them to meet the requirements for maintenance which in this country have been in excess of any other country."

"It is probable that the railroads have been extravagant in their expenditures to meet the constant public demands for increased facilities of every kind. They could possibly have limited the cost of terminals, but every city in the land was demanding of the railroads that their terminals

Policeman Overcome in Trying to Rescue Victim of Conflagration

Man Was in Drunken Stupor and Lived in Rear of 'Prep' School

BERKELEY, Feb. 4.—Edward Howard, a laborer, was burned to death and Special Officer W. H. Thomson was overcome by smoke and flames in the effort to rescue him, when fire destroyed a shack occupied by Howard in the rear of Berkeley preparatory school, at Dwight way and Blake street, early this morning.

The fire was discovered by Professor G. A. Whitman who is connected with the preparatory school and the English department at the University of California. After a conversation with Professor J. H. White, principal of the institution, Professor Whitman stepped into the yard and saw flames through the window of the shack in which Howard had gone to bed in a drunken stupor. Rushing to the small building, the instructor threw open the door and was almost blinded by an outburst of flames.

He summoned Professor White, and the two men connected a hose with a hydrant in the rear yard, but with the small stream were unable to check the flames, or make their way into the shack to rescue Howard. Special Officer Thomson dashed through the door and managed to get hold of one of the burning man's feet, but before he could drag him to the outside was overcome by smoke and fire, and rushed out of the place in a sickened condition.

EXTENDED SPREE.

The fire department had been summoned, but before the apparatus reached the scene the structure was practically destroyed, and the occupant turned to a crisp. The blackened body was taken in charge by the coroner's office.

Professor White made the statement this morning that Howard, who has been employed at odd jobs about town for several years, had been on a drinking spree for several days, and was undoubtedly intoxicated when he went to his room last evening. He had been permitted to lodge in the small building for some time. Howard was about 35 years old, unmarried, and had no known relatives in this vicinity.

It is believed the bed clothes became smoldering from an overturned lantern which Howard had been using to illuminate his room.

OFFICER FROZEN TO DEATH IN ALASKA

Lieutenant West Loses Life During Blizzard in the North.

NOME, Alaska, Feb. 24.—Lieutenant S. E. West, U. S. A., of Fort Davis, was frozen to death yesterday while stalking the trail five miles from Tishou, during the severest blizzard ever known here. Mrs. Davenport, wife of a deputy United States marshal, and for whom Lieutenant West was marking the trail, walked into Tishou through the snow and reported that Lieutenant West had been frozen to death. Deputy Marshal Davenport went out, found the body and brought it in. Lieutenant Solomon B. West, who was a native of New Hampshire and 23 years old, enlisted in the First New Hampshire Volunteers as a private at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war and in 1901 entered the regular establishment as second lieutenant of the Twenty-second infantry. He went to Alaska with his regiment last June.

JAPAN IS READY TO UPHOLD NEW TREATY

Eighteen Articles in Document and Ambassador Issues Statement Regarding It

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The new Japanese treaty, the text of which was published here today and which now is pending before the Senate committee, comprises eighteen articles. Most of these cover subjects already treated in the existing convention though in many instances the language of articles is changed to make the provisions conform to modern conditions. Perhaps the most important feature of the document, which while not part of the treaty, is attached to it in connection with the correspondence, is the following declaration: "In proceeding to a day to the signature of the treaty of commerce and navigation between Japan and the United States, the undersigned, Japanese ambassador in Washington, duly authorized by his government, has the honor to declare that the imperial Japanese government is fully prepared to maintain, with equal effectiveness, the limitation and control which they have for the past three years exercised in the regulation of the immigration of laborers to the United States."

(Signed) "Y. UCHIDA." February 21, 1911.

NO SPECIAL TAXES.

The first article of the treaty asserts the right of citizens or subjects of the two countries to enter, travel or live in the territories of the other, to carry on trade, lease houses and shops and residences and generally do anything incident to trade. They are exempted from any special taxation not imposed upon native subjects, are guaranteed the most constant protection and security for their persons and property on submitting themselves to the conditions imposed upon natives. They are also exempted from military service and forced loans.

The second article is purely formal and guards against domiciliary visits or searches of subjects of one country in another except upon the same conditions as are imposed on natives. It is in this article that there is noted the exception or limitation of the provision contained in the existing treaty, recognizing the right of each country to regulate immigration.

(The third article contains the right to appoint consular officers "except in those places where it may not be convenient to recognize such officers."

Article 4 is the usual treaty article guaranteeing the reciprocal freedom of commerce and navigation.

Article 5 provides that import duties shall be regulated, "either by special arrangement between the two countries or by the internal legislation of each."

Article 6 exempts citizens from transit duties and other charges not imposed on natives.

Corporations are dealt with in article 7, which permits them to appear in courts, subject to the laws of each country, though it is stipulated that the permission to corporations to transact business must remain subject to local laws.

Parisians Throw Eggs at Wearer of Harem Gown

PARIS, Feb. 24.—Incidents of public disturbances accompanying the appearance in the streets of women wearing the new trousers skirt occurred today. The Avenue de l'Opera was the scene of one of the most serious outbreaks. The woman, having been surrounded by a laughing, jeering crowd, was unable to proceed, and a man, taking advantage of the occasion, purchased a basket of eggs from a dealer in a side street and distributed them among the other men, who, when ordered to show their disapproval of what they considered unduly conduct, pelted the helpless wearer of the new garment until a squad of police intervened and aided the woman to escape. Doubts appear to have arisen among the leading Paris dressmakers as to whether the skirt will be adopted by women as a general fashion. But few have ordered this far and these have gone chiefly to women who are believed to have been shopping and wished to take home the latest sensation. Many have been sent to America.

Prof. Hugo K. Schilling Hurt in Fall From Horse

BERKELEY, Feb. 24.—Hugo K. Schilling, professor of German language and literature at the University of California, was thrown from a horse while riding with a party of friends near the Claremont County club yesterday and sustained serious injuries. The animal, a white Arabian, was unmanageable and fell upon his shoulder and head, and it is believed he sustained concussion of the brain. He is being attended by Dr. J. W. Sitt at the Schilling home, 2315 Le Conte avenue. It is not believed that his injuries will prove fatal. Professor Schilling has been connected with the state university since May 15, 1901. Prior to that time he held the position of modern language at Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, and assistant professor of German at Harvard, and it is believed he sustained

RAILROADS LOSE FIGHT FOR ADVANCE IN RATES

Interstate Commerce Commission Decides in Favor of Shippers in Eastern and Western Cases

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has decided against the railroads in both the "eastern" and the "western" cases. Proposed advance in class freight rates in various classification territory, aggregating among all the railroads in the territory approximately $27,000,000 a year, were disapproved by the commission.

In the case involving the increase by the railroads in western trunk line territory, the commission also declined to approve the proposed advances in commodity rates.

The carriers in both cases are required to cancel, on or before March 10, their advanced tariffs and restore the former rates, which are the rates now in effect.

effect. If this requirement is not complied with, the commission will issue a formal order suspending the proposed advance rates, putting into effect the existing rates for at least two years.

In the case of the railroad commission of Texas against the Atchafalaya, Tonopah and Santa Fe railways and other carriers, known popularly as the southwestern rate case, the commission declined to disturb the commodity rates, or the first class rates. The defendants are ordered, however, to reduce the second class rates, which were increased from $1.21 to $1.29, to $1.25.

In the remaining classes the defendants are required to reduce the rates before the increased rates were published.

Bank Clerks in Burnt Cork Will Give Minstrels

A. DIXON SHIRREFF, who is a comedian, who will take part in the vaudeville and minstrel show to be given by the bank clerks of Oakland.

Tonight will be the great night for the bank clerks of Oakland. It will be the opening night of the minstrel and vaudeville show for the benefit of the Alameda County Society for the Prevention and Cure of Tuberculosis given by the Oakland Chapter of the American Institute of Banking. The wide interest in the affair will assure a full house to greet the first performance.

Society will appear in force tonight and tomorrow night, when the minstrel show will be repeated. The list of performers contains the names of a host of Oakland's most prominent women. A number of box parties have been arranged for on both nights of the show, and it is certain that the entertainment both before and behind the footlights will aid materially in making the performance one to be remembered for long and long.

The "Minstrel first part" will follow the traditions of the old-time minstrel show but instead of the time-honored croon of performers the scene will be given a novel and pretty setting. The jokes and songs of minstrelsy will be given with new twists and turns to bring them up to the times, and a chorus of 75 voices will add materially to the musical ensembles.

In the "olio," or vaudeville second part, two little girls will have prominent places. Miss Eugenia Clinchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Clinchard of Alameda, five years old, will give a group of dances, and tiny Violetta, only will be seen in some of her remarkable impersonations of well-known stars on the Orpheum stage. Both winsome little misses are sure to bring down the house when they trip out on the stage in the glitter of the footlights.

The complete program is as follows: First Part—A. Dixon Shirreff, Jr., impersonator. End Men—Tambos, Dan Casey, Harry Noy, Sydney S. Clark, A. Dixon Shirreff, Noy, Jack Heaney, Les Gilbert, Guy Jacobus, Clyde E. Adams. Second Part—Theo. Jenkins, Geo. Warrick, Robt. McClure, Frank Figone, J. P. Jones, Clarence Oliver. Tones—H. A. Harris, M. HOUSE IS MADE 'SQUARED CIRCLE'

U. S. Representatives Let Fly
Fists and Unparliamentary Speech.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Another blooded battle was fought on the floor of the House of Representatives late yesterday. It came during a somewhat heated debate on a bill for the leasing of coal lands in Alaska. The bill was passed, and as the short and ugly word ran out Delegate James Wickersham of Alaska made a rush for Representative Frank W. Mondell of Wyoming, who was seated at a nearby desk.

The big Alaskan's right arm shot out twice in the direction of the gentleman from Wyoming, but members who surrounded the disputants at the time say that both blows fell short.

The House was in an uproar in an instant. Several members hurled themselves on Wickersham, others were struggling with Mondell, who had gained his feet and was making for his assailant. Representative Peter von Steiner had taken Wickersham by the throat.

This added to the uncontrolled anger of the delegate and for a moment diverted his attention toward the would-be peacekeeper.

Representative Ellison of Mississippi was first to reach Mondell, who was endeavoring to raise the chair in which he had been sitting to hurl it at his antagonist.

Members rushed toward the group from every part of the chamber, and soon there were nearly a hundred men in the crowd about the struggling legislators.

MYSTERY CLOTHES RUTH CAMPBELL

Drugged Woman Fails to Explain
Excursion to Salt Lake City.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Held a prisoner at Central Emergency hospital, her eyes still holding the vacant stare of a person who sees but does not understand, Ruth Campbell, or Ruth Bell, has not yet come to her senses. The young woman, who walked into the city prison yesterday, declaring she had been drugged and taken on a round trip excursion to Salt Lake City, seems paralyzed with fright, and unable to gather her thoughts.

The police today will communicate with Eric Holmstrom, number 7, Box 30, Los Angeles, the address given on a scrap of paper which tells of the residence of this of an aunt, Mrs. Olivia Grove, and it is hoped that some clue may be secured.

This morning an additional scrap of paper in the form of a card of the Elite Clothing Company, 17 Kearney street, was found. On it is written the message: "Dear Ruth: Have been upstairs, but you were not in. So when you come in, come down and let me know how you are feeling—Al."

Whether or not this refers to Albert Rubenstein, formerly connected with the company, is not known. The firm recently moved from the address given and nothing further could be learned about this phase of the case.

STABLE BOY IS STABBED IN ABDOMEN IN FIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—As the result of a fight at the Oriental saloon, Pacific and Sansome streets, early this morning, George Carter, a stable boy, is at the Central Emergency Hospital with a stab wound in his abdomen and a fractured rib.

Armed with a knife and a large knife, Carter was charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

That murder was not done was due to the prompt action of others in the place as a dispute between the two men resulted in Carter's drawing a revolver. He was disarmed before he could use it, and Shadwick, incoherent, drew a knife and made a lunge at him.

The injured man was first taken to the office of Dr. Eldlund, 616 Kearney street, and from there to the Hospital where he is being held under guard.

Attorney-General Webb's Belated Activity.

Attorney-General Webb contends that the order granting Abe Ruef a new trial is void because it was not signed by four justices sitting in bank. The order was signed at different times and places by the justices. For this reason the Attorney-General argues that it is void and of no effect.

Chief Justice Beatty reminded Attorney-General Webb that the court had merely followed the unbroken practice of sixty years. Orders granting rehearings have been signed and issued in the same way the Ruef order was signed and issued ever since the Supreme Court of California was organized. Former Supreme Justice John Curry says it was never before contended that it was necessary for orders of the character of the one in question to be issued by the court in bank.

Judge Curry points out that a vast proportion of the decisions of the Supreme Court in the past would be nullified if the doctrine set up by the Attorney-General should be sustained, since a majority of the decisions handed down by the court are signed separately and at different times by the justices. A decision is vastly more important than an order.

However, we are led to inquire why all this pother at this particular time? Why was such an uproar raised over a matter transacted in the ordinary way? Was it because the Legislature was about to meet and an effort made to pass a constitutional amendment providing for the recall of judges? Had the case been any other than the case of Abraham Ruef no proceedings would have been taken to have the order declared void. Nothing would have been said about the matter. The Attorney-General would not have moved a finger or raised his voice. He never did before, and he has been Attorney-General for twelve years.

But it was the case of Abraham Ruef, and that is the secret of the whole disturbance. It afforded an opportunity to throw mud on the Supreme Court and make capital for the recall too good to be lost. It is but another example of the demagoguery, false pretense, humbug virtue and hypocritical chicanery which have characterized the so-called graft prosecutions since the beginning.

Never before has the Attorney-General protested against the validity of a rehearing because it was granted in the way the Ruef order was granted. He would not have protested now if Ruef had not been the party involved. Why did the Attorney-General wait till this occasion to get on his hind legs and roar? But why ask a question, the answer to which is obvious to every thinking mind?

The frequent change of text books in the schools has become an abuse so pronounced as to call for a remedy. It has imposed an unnecessary and onerous expense on parents apparently for no better reason than somebody wants to sell books. In some of these changes there have been suggestions of graft. A constitutional amendment designed to protect parents from this sort of imposition has passed the Assembly. It forbids changing text books oftener than four years—that is, a text book must be permitted to remain in use four years before another can be substituted for it. A hard and fast rule of this kind is of doubtful expediency, but the reform it is designed to effect is a worthy and necessary one.

Putting the State Up at Auction.

Every scheme for dividing counties in this State has been accompanied by corruption in more or less acute form, and has caused ill-feeling and alienation.

If these things have been in the past, what is to be expected if the Legislature made possible an attempt to efface Oakland and absorb it by San Francisco?

If such a misfortune should befall Oakland it is put in the power of San Francisco to carry a majority here by the simple process of colonization. A man acquires a voting residence in ninety days. San Francisco could float into Oakland 20,000 voters who would be eligible to register and vote at a cost of half a million dollars. That this will be done is as certain as anything can be. The prize is worth the money. It is a water front worth millions, public property worth millions more and the absolute political control of California.

Does the Legislature want to promote a game of that kind? Does it want to put up at auction the political independence of the State, along with the real and property of Oakland to be knocked down to San Francisco at the same cost of a corrupt colonization of voters to overwhelm the property owners and business men of this city?

Harry C. Dell, the American arrested by the Mexican authorities at Tia Juana, has appealed to the United States government. Dell denies that he has done anything wrong or that he has had anything to do with the insurrection in Mexico. But he does not explain what he was doing in Tia Juana at a time when it was reported in the press that the insurgents were planning an attack on that frontier village. Why did he bury $420, as he said he did, on the American side of the line and then cross the border? He had no business there, and that his presence gave rise to suspicion is evident. Dell acted like a man who was looking for trouble. All along the border idle, irresponsible and reckless Americans are taking part in the insurrection, and when an American having no business there drifts over the line at a point where trouble is expected he subjects himself to a suspicion that is both reasonable and just. It would not do any harm if the Mexican government were to shoot a few of these filibustering freebooters.

Arguments as Are Arguments.

The Honorable Albert H. Hofmann told the Senate Judiciary Committee that he wanted San Francisco to gobble up Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda because he was born in San Francisco, educated in Berkeley and resides in Oakland; he therefore wanted all three consolidated into one city.

Mr. Elliot's argument is structurally weak, as are all his arguments. Suppose he had been born in Tar Flat, educated in Timbuctoo and taken up his residence in Milpitas, would he argue that these places should be consolidated under one municipal government as vanguard to his vanity?

He further said that the towns on this side of the bay ought to be dragged into San Francisco to prevent Los Angeles from outgrowing that city. That may be a convincing argument to the legislators from Los Angeles, but it does not mitigate the injustice it is proposed to inflict on the people of Alameda county.

Again Mr. Elliot urged that the Wolfe amendment should pass because the people of Oakland were planning to build up a great city on the eastern shore of the bay that would be a commercial rival to San Francisco. He seemed to think that justified giving San Francisco the power to extend her jurisdiction over us by conquest.

All of Mr. Elliot's arguments appear to be touched with the weakness of his head.

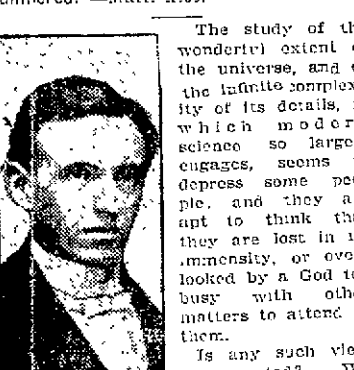

"THOSE DREADFUL FOLK NEXT DOOR"

GOD NOT TOO BUSY

By JOHN E. STUEBEL, Pastor of Church of Piedmont.

"The very hairs of your head are all numbered."—Matt. x. 30.

John E. Stuebel.

The study of the wonderful extent of the universe, and of the infinite complexity of its details, in which modern science so largely engages, seems to depress some people, and they are apt to think that they are lost in its immensity, or overlooked by a God too busy with other matters to attend to them.

Is any such view warranted? We can not believe it. Can not believe that those aspirations of our souls have been given only to mock us. Nor does the evidence of nature seem to justify any such conclusion.

I did not note last summer that for all God's multitudinous activities, the dove on the cheek of the peach was not less exquisite, nor the modeling of the lily's form one degree less perfect, nor the perfume of the rose a particle less fragrant, nor the sheen on the throat of the humming bird a particle less wondrous. I did not even note that the texture on the leaves, or the gloss on the wings of the fly, was in the least hurried or slurred over. And, if God is able to care for all these things, as though there were nothing else to engage his attention, will any one tell me that he is too busy to attend to my cry, or to guide my feet, or to cheer my heart? That he is at leisure for all these other things and too busy for his children?

Some foolish earthly parents might do this, but not the great parent. I do not lift my voice in a vacuum for aid, nor supplicate a distant or unsympathetic God. I am in his audience chamber; the whole universe is responsive to his touch, and our great prime minister says: "Ask and ye shall receive; ye are of more value than many sparrows; the very hairs of your head are all numbered." Will he be so I care for the punting of my balls, if the sorrows of my heart are overlooked? Yes, the argument is that since such an apparently superfluous task is easily and naturally done, much more shall these real concerns of the soul receive due consideration.

"But," one may object, "we are in the realm of the supernatural, and answer prayer without violating his own laws?" Brother, I quarrel not with thee there. How if prayer itself be in conformity with a higher law? When we pray we seek not for miracles, we do ask for sympathy and help and aid; and it matters little whether the answer come specially or by law. Adjust that for yourself. It is not enough to know that the stars are not empty, heaven not a dream, and that God is not too busy nor too careless to provide for our needs. We are his children, whom he loved enough to make this beautiful world for our temporary home, enough to tear from his side the son of his love to send in order to save us. We are welcome whenever we may knock at his door, whether at noon, or noon, or devery eve; in health and prosperity, or in sickness or reverses.

Many of our friends in those strenuous days are too busy for us. Happy thought that the greatest friend has still leisure for us!

Jaegerwaki, the celebrated Russian pianist, has just won a prize at a poultry show.

Dr. Laman Abbott says divorce is nothing more than paganism.

Mrs. Russell Sage continues her good work in finding new opportunities for aiding in social uplift. Her latest gift of $30,000 to establish libraries in every fire-house in New York.

After living 108 years, Mrs. Florence Epler, of Colorado, met death by accident. Her husband, who survives, is aged 111, and the couple had been married 91 years.

Dr. Taylor, the distinguished president of world-famed Vassar, insists that women are smarter than men.

The Changing Railroad Order

It would be hypocritical to express regret at the elimination of Mr. Gould from the railroad situation. Of course he is let down easy with the chairmanship of the board of directors, but no one supposes that the new president of the Missouri Pacific will be responsible to anybody but the controlling majority of the board and that does not include Mr. Gould. A comparison of the Gould road with other western railroads, the Paul, Northern Pacific, Atchison, and above all the Harriman roads, shows plainly enough why the change was inevitable.

From the time when E. H. Harriman triumphantly showed what could really be made of a great western system, the Gould authority in railroad matters was done. E. H. Harriman still lives, for his works do follow him, while of the old generation of railroad financiers, the Russell Sages and Jay Goulds have left no monument. Repeated reconstructions have undone all the work they ever did, for the reason that the work was so bad that it had to be done over again.

Railroad expansion has many years to run in America before the country will be adequately served, but our energies must be turned to establishing the older construction on a permanent and unshakable base.

It is curious to think that only ten years ago the gossip of Wall Street turned on "Gould brokers," "Wander-bill brokers," and other agencies of the stock market owing allegiance to our two greatest financial families. So far as the stock market is concerned, that feudal period has passed. The Vanderbilt roads are so in little more than name, large as the family interest in them doubtless is. Gould brokers there are none, for Western Union, Manhattan elevated, Wabash, and many Missouri Pacific, have passed into other and, it must be confessed, greatly more competent hands.

Nobody with the real spirit of democracy will repine. The hereditary principle has serious defects in the ownership of any property. It is absolutely paralyzing when exercised in railroad management in such a country as this. Frequent changes of control may sound dangerous, but they are favorable to railroad growth. Ten years ago it looked as if all the railroads of the United States would finally come under one ownership. There had been concentration since, but disintegration on a more considerable scale has been the real feature of ownership as it stands today.

Missouri Pacific's identity is not to be merged in that of any other system. It has natural merits of its own, and when it gets the president it has long needed a few years' prosperity will place it in the position it should have occupied long ago. — From the Wall Street Journal.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

It has been announced that Leland Stanford Jr. University at Palo Alto would be dedicated next June and be ready for the entrance of students in the following October.

The following have been discharged from the Fifth Regiment Infantry: Corporal Eugene M. Rutherford, Private Robert Scott, Private Nick Ennor, Private Charles T. Groathead, Private Jas. A. Elte, and Private George S. Shurey. George Bowman, W. J. Dinco and W. E. Miller this morning filed an inventory and appraisal of the estate of Virginia T. de Tremorey, deceased. They have valued it at $78,251.03. There is a clause in the will which provides that a certain debt to the estate be released and discharged which has accordingly been done. The name of the debtor will not appear in the records.

Alonso Chaco, the old pioneer, who died in East Oakland recently, left an estate of approximately $10,000, which he bequeathed to his son, George Chaco, county treasurer, shortly before his death. This son is the only heir.

Corinna, who used to be known as the child actress, appeared before a large audience last night at the Oakland theater.

as "Carmen," the gypsy cigarette girl of Seville. Corinne is no longer a child—she is a full-blown bud—a very lively, smiling, palpitating young woman, intensely curiously.

One hundred and fifty representatives of the land of Llewellyn assembled at the hotel last night to celebrate the annual reunion and banquet of the Cyrenaecian society. Among the speakers were: Dr. M. J. Jones, Professor Price, Miss M. A. Weeks, Rev. Jonathan Nicholas, Miss Marian John, Rev. W. D. Williams and Talcott Evans.

Among those who attended the musicale at the home of Mrs. Henry Wetherbee last evening were the following: Miss Blake-Alverson, Howard Baker, Miss Bessie Donaldson, Miss Beatrice Priest, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rodfield, Mrs. Mc-Nutt, Sallier Baker, Mrs. Henry Wetherbee, Miss Emily Lawrence, Fred Wiant, Miss Grace Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McKnight, Miss Sylvia Chapman and Miss Cloy Beaton.

This morning Dr. E. H. Woolsey departed for a ten days' trip to El Paso de Robles, Elot Springs, San Diego and Santa Barbara. During his absence Dr. Taylor and J. P. Dunn will have charge of affairs at the Oakland hospital.

The orange is the most luscious and healthful fruit. California excels in quality of oranges. The best of the California oranges are now packed in individual wrappers labeled "Sunkist."

Five thousand orange farmers in California do their own packing, shipping and selling. They grade and select their crop into "firsts," "seconds," etc. The firsts are fancy, tree-ripened, hand-picked, seedless, fibrous, thin-skinned oranges—every individual a perfect specimen of the finest variety of oranges. They are not only more healthful and more palatable than other oranges, but they are actually cheaper, for they are nearly all meat and nourishment. You'll know them by the tissue paper wrapper in which each "Sunkist" Orange is packed. On the wrapper note the label "Sunkist." Keep all the wrappers. They are worth money to you.

Best California Lemons Come in "Sunkist" Wrappers

You can judge lemons by the "clothes" they wear. If they wear "Sunkist" wrappers they are juicy and good, for they are not a tick-and-pilly. They are just as good as "Sunkist" Oranges, and their wrappers are equally valuable.

SEWER QUESTION WAS DISCUSSED

Hopkins Street Improvement Club Held Important Session Last Night.

FRUITVALE, Feb. 24.—At the meeting of the Hopkins Street Improvement Club last night most of the time was taken up with a discussion of the best means to secure the installing of sewers throughout the district, either under the Freeman act or the 24-year bond issue proposition. Many of the club members are in favor of the former and many of the latter, and much time was taken up on the discussion of which would be the better for the district. It is the plan of the club to have the entire district furnished with a full sewer and regular drainage sewers by summer.

Petitions for the construction of Lincoln avenue from Hopkins to Clampton streets have been circulated among the residents in an effort to have them sign for the grading and macadamizing of the thoroughfare, and the canvassers report that they are meeting with success.

MAKING REPAIRS. ON WATER-FRONT

New Piling Placed at End of P. F. and T. Co.'s Wharf at Foot of Webster Street.

Extensive improvements and repairs which have been under way at the wharf and sheds occupied by the Pacific Freight and Transportation Company at the foot of Webster street, were completed yesterday. The piling at the end of the wharf has been completely renewed and a warehouse shed constructed upon it. The work was done by Cotton Brothers.

The steam schooner Prentiss, owned by the Pacific Coast Lumber Company, was placed on the ways at the Moore & Scott yards yesterday. She will be fitted up with a new propeller, besides being recaulked and generally overhauled.

The Prentiss was built in the yards, where she is now being prepared, in 1892, by W. A. Boole & Co., the predecessors to Moore & Scott, and was the first steam schooner ever turned out of that yard.

BEING OVERHAULED.

The schooner Watson A. West, Captain Sorenson, which was partially dismantled in storms encountered on her recent trip from Newcastle, Australia, to Oakland, is at the Moore & Scott yards being fixed up. As soon as the repair work is completed on her she will go to Call.

Five more carloads of material for the big dredgers which have the boat are being sent for the Yukon Gold Dredging Company, were received at the yards yesterday.

The schooner Advance, Captain Ogdessen, arrived in port yesterday with lumber for the Hogan Lumber Company. Fair weather all the way from Coquille river enabled the Advance to make good time.

The General C. Tobey is loading Santa Cruz cement by means of the conveyor at Adams Wharf today. She will take on 2500 tons, destined for Portland.

The schooner Gray, Captain Smith, is at the dock at the foot of Iron Works yesterday, to be caulked and overhauled. She is owned by the S. S. Freeman Company, being employed in the lumber trade.

APRON-STRING SOLONS GRATE ON POLSLEY

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 24.—Assemblyman Polsley yes; took a fling at the administration leaders and their habit of keeping their ears to the ground to hear what the Governor has to say on matters of legislation. During the discussion at the Japanese treaty resolution he said: "A resolution almost word for word like this was introduced by me early in the session, but it was held off by some of the members. There has been an attempt all along to put things over until some of the members hear from downstairs. They are like little children going to see their mamma and don't want to hear what they ought to do. I think it is about time for the members to do something for themselves."

ENGLISH STAR TO APPEAR HERE FOR THE FIRST TIME

FANNIE WARD coming to Oakland Orpheum next Sunday.

Al. is his wife and one moment over at the Oakland Orpheum, where they are making somewhat elaborate preparations for the coming of Miss Fannie Ward. She is the distinguished English actress with a record of triumphs in London that would make it appear that an American-born girl need never fear about English prejudice against American artists.

Miss Ward enjoys the distinction of being one of the very few actresses who are held in high favor by the royal family and the nobility of England. She played in one of the most famous plays of the London theater for fourteen months, and the play was visited five times by King Edward and Queen Alexandra.

Miss Ward's courtly estate adorns those of William Waldorf Astor. She is noted for the richness of her entertainments and the distinguished guests who are pleased to be her company.

Miss Ward's gown is said to be among the most beautiful gowns worn by stage stars. It is being designed by Lady Duff Gordon, regarded as the most celebrated dressmaker in the world. Miss Ward is said to be as beautiful as a child, and is said to be as lovely as a child.

Miss Ward is coming to the Orpheum next Sunday.

DIVORCE 40 YEARS OLD IS ATTACKED

First Mrs. Manning Bowes Sues for Part of Dead Man's Estate.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Feb. 24.—A sensational suit has been instituted in the Circuit Court. Mrs. Barbara Bowes of Lewisburg, Pa., has filed papers in an action to set aside a decree of divorce granted by Judge A. L. Gibson, April 1, 1901, to Manning Bowes, whom she claims to have married at Lewisburg August 27, 1850, and continued to live with him until January 1, 1907, when by mutual agreement he deserted to make a home for them and his daughter Eva, now Mrs. Guver, of Ashburn, Pa., in the west.

The complaint alleges that after securing the divorce from Barbara Bowes he married the daughter of a Methodist minister in Connecticut and thereafter married Miss E. L. Lowe, now a resident of San Francisco. No three can be found of the Connecticut woman.

Mrs. Bowes claims her husband obtained the divorce through fraud, that she was not notified of the decree, and that she has no means of support at the age of 70 and asks that the decree be set aside to enable her with the aid of a widow's share in the property of her husband to live in the home at 1215 Scott street, where Mrs. Bowes still lives. To this claimant Mrs. Bowes has the sum of $10,000 and to his sister, Mrs. Margaret A. Jones of Rockford, Ill., and to his brother, Joseph M. Bowes of Lewisburg, Pa., $10,000 each.

BOWES WAS ARMY SURGEON

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Manning Bowes, referred to in the above dispatch, is the late Dr. Manning Bowes, a retired army surgeon, who lived in this city for many years. He was the husband of the late Mrs. Bowes, who died in 1901. He was a resident of San Francisco at the time of his death.

UNCLE SAM MUST NOW PAY FOR COINING CENTS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The disappearance of the large copper cent and the nickel cent from circulation has led to a serious condition in the United States treasury. None of these pieces had been coined for years, but each year to give the government a good profit in recouping them into small copper cents and into nickel five-cent pieces.

Officials of the Treasury Department have informed Congress that these pieces practically have gone out of existence. In order to keep up the supply of new coins, and nickel cents, Congress will have to appropriate money to pay the expense of coining.

STEALS ENGINE AND RIDES AWAY

Wild Frank of Presumably Drunken Man Almost Ends in Tragedy.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Feb. 24.—Frank J. Young is under arrest here as a result of a wild ride on a locomotive belonging to the Washington, Idaho & Montana Railroad Company last night.

The locomotive was standing in the yards at Devil and, climbing into the cab, Young was alleged to have been unseated, started for Palouse. When Young began his trip the regular passenger train was on the way from Pocatello to Pocatello.

Operations along the line were notified and the engine was located just as it was pulling out of Pocatello. The train at this station lagged its train and ran it to a siding.

In the meantime a second engine was sent out from Pocatello in pursuit, and the runaway locomotive was arrested at Pocatello, owing to the fact that Young's condition was such to have prevented his keeping up sufficient steam to make last time.

Young, who is believed to be an ex-brickman, was brought here late yesterday and lodged in jail.

DROPS DEAD AT TABLE.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

A Disorder Which Yields to the Tonic Treatment as This California Case Shows.

There is a form of indigestion in which the stomach may be in a perfectly sound condition. This is called nervous dyspepsia, and is caused by a disturbance of the nervous system which controls the digestive process. That the nervous do control this process is evident from the fact that auto emotions such as grief or despair immediately stop digestion, and that an injury to the brain or a nerve center causes nausea and other disturbances of the stomach. The digestive fluids such as saliva and gastric juice are the products of cells which are abundantly supplied with nerve fibres, and therefore excitation of food will start the flow of these fluids.

An instance in which this form of nervous trouble was readily cured by the tonic treatment was that of Mrs. E. J. Durand, of Campbell, Cal. She says:

Three years ago I had nervous dyspepsia and thought it was due to overwork. My stomach did not seem to digest the food and I got so that I could not eat much of anything. This seemed to take my strength away and, while I was not confined to bed, I had to give up my work. I was very nervous and easily excited. I could not seem to get any strength and was very pale.

"I was treated by two doctors but grew worse, if anything, under their treatment. My daughter read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and brought home a box for me to try. Although I had been sick for several weeks, I was soon helped by the pills. My appetite picked up and the food was digested. I began to get stronger and in a short time I was cured. I am glad to tell of my experience which, I hope will be of help to other sufferers."

A new edition of the booklet, "What to Eat and How to Eat," is free on request. Send a postal for it today and begin to cure yourself by following the directions it contains.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent by mail to any address, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y. The genuine are sold only in the trade-marked packages.

What the Wise Man Says: 'Make Good'

Out out "if," "could," and "should."
And start in to saw wood.
You can still have the best
Things in life like the rest
Of those who've achieved
Just because they believed
In themselves. You're deceived
If you think Fortune comes
With a rattle of drums,
And a fanfare of state
To serve YOURS on a plate.
That isn't the way
That she visits today.
Plunge into the fight.
Hit to left and to right.
Don't let up with your striking
Till things meet your liking.
It makes the world bitter
To look at a quitter.
Fate scowls when she sees
A Grownup on his knees.
Why the freckle-backed toads
Have the sense to keep jumping
And here you stand tramping.

Come now, strike your gait;
It isn't too late.
Drop that fool talk of "luck,"
Get a grip on your pluck;
There are prizes to win;
It's a shame and a sin
To be passed by the rest.
You're one of the best
In THE TRIBUNE'S contest.
Show what you are—
Win a Chalmers' car.
Make people say
What a hustler you are.
Jump in, today,
Shot hooray!
"Me for the best
In the great contest."
If others are blowing
And showing
All they've done,
Don't care a fig,
Get out and dig.
Now's the time to begin.
Never stop till you WIN.

It's wonderful HOW MUCH CAN BE DONE after you think you have exhausted all of your resources. Candidates will say to us one day that they do not know where to turn for another subscription, and the very next day perhaps they will come smiling in with the best record they have yet made.

THE BIG VOTE OFFER ends Saturday night at 9 o'clock. Be sure to get every possible vote by that time.

MANY NOT ASKED.

Many persons say that no candidate has asked them for a subscription. It has just been assumed that they have already subscribed in favor of some candidate. It is surprising how many people you can find to give you a subscription if you make the effort. RIGHT IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD there are many persons who have not helped a candidate yet simply because no one has asked them.

Don't neglect to see EVERYONE in your neighborhood, as well as your friends elsewhere.

The list of candidates will be published on Sunday.

OUT-OF-TOWN SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Subscriptions can be mailed at any time on Saturday night and they will count on the Big Vote Offer even though not received by the Contest Department until Monday.

Cottolene

Deal with the Grocer who sells Cottolene

Cottolene is the original vegetable-oil cooking fat. It is in a class by itself, and imitations approach it only in claims—not in quality.

It has come to our notice that cheap and inferior imitations are being offered the public in some communities as "just as good" as Cottolene. There is no economy in buying such products—even at a few cents less per pail than Cottolene is sold for. And this is why:

These products are of inferior grade, and often made amid questionable surroundings.

Cottolene, being richer, will go one-third farther than any of these products, lard or cooking butter, and a few cent's saving at the start is not a saving in the end, but false economy.

There's but one Cottolene, and we make it.

Substitutes are make-believes, and dear at any price. It pays to deal with the grocer who sells Cottolene, because he is most likely to sell the best of everything.

FIRST AMERICAN OPERA TO BE SEEN

Exclusive Audience Sees Dress
Rehearsal of Victor Herbert's Natoma.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 24.—American opera had its first hearing at the Metropolitan yesterday. The occasion was quite unofficial, for it was the final dress rehearsal of Joseph D. Redding and Victor Herbert's long-promised "Natoma," a work that Oscar Hammerstein originally commissioned the composer to write. There were numerous incidents noted. Not more than fifty persons—managers, musicians, critics and others directly interested in the undertaking—were seated in the darkened auditorium. These guests were not treated to a wholly harmonious spectacle.

MARY GARDEN SAYS THINGS.

Mary Garden, who sings the title part, gave the rehearsal a pyrotechnic start by condemning costumes in general and specifically, his was because she was sent a negro wig instead of an Indian girl's straight tresses. "I just won't wear that thing!" she cried. And she didn't. Director Cosentino Campanini, who has been working conspicuously over the score for six weeks, sat calmly during the first act. His artistic emotions got the better of him as the performance proceeded. He compelled a body of American sailors to leave the stage and effect a new entrance. He admonished DeFrance in French and sang in Italian. He looked and spoke dangers to his orchestra. But unquestionably he achieved the desired results. The play was superb.

DRYS WIN VICTORY.

VISALIA, Feb. 24.—The wet and dry election held here resulted in 650 votes being cast against the saloons and 521 in favor of the continuance of the wet regime. The total vote was 1,171, of which 23 were thrown out. The dry majority was 158.

SIXTH ATTEMPT AT SELF MURDER IS SUCCESSFUL

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 24.—After having made five futile attempts to commit suicide in the last year, Anton Sturges, formerly in the employ of the Kansas City Southern Railway, but out of work for several weeks, succeeded in ending his life here yesterday by drinking carbolic acid. His wife was killed by an insane man four years ago at Osceola, Mo., and grief over her death is believed to have caused his suicide.

TELLS YOU HOW TO CURE A COLD

Surely Breaks the Most Severe Cold and Ends Grippe Misery in Just a Few Hours.

The most effective and harmless way to cure the Grippe or break a severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs, is a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken. You will distinctly feel the cold breaking up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic aching.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25 cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

After three years' research we have conclusively demonstrated that quinine is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

CHICAGO 'BOMBS' FOUND HARMLESS

Supposed Explosives Found at Apponyi Meeting Prove to Be Fakes.

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—(Exchange) A number of the "bombs" found by the police after the address of Count Albert Apponyi at the fine arts building last night. He told today that these were harmless. The bombs, consisting of two cardboard cylinders stuffed with cotton, were found at the end of the hall and with them a letter from Apponyi.

A crowd of Hungarian socialists, who met at the count's residence, had gathered in the hall and created a serious disturbance. The count ordered the police to clear the hall, but they were evicted. The count was found in the hall and a letter from Apponyi was found.

MUNICIPAL POLITICS WAS KEYNOTE OF CLUB MEETING

Residents of Annexed District-Hold Rousing Rally in Interest of Candidacy of Fredrickson for Commissioner

The Greater Oakland Progressive Club held a largely representative and enthusiastic meeting at Blackman's hall last night at Fourteenth and High streets in the annexed district. The general object of the club meeting which now has upon its rolls a membership of 5000 names was to express sentiments and to endorse for the advancement of the candidacy of P. C. Fredrickson, whose campaign is now well under way for the commission of the city of Oakland. An unusually large number of members spoke during the evening, and most of the speeches while brief were very pointed and practical. The speakers seemed to grow very definitely what they wanted and to be prepared to stick to it without doubt or hesitation.

The general trend of all the remarks was to the effect that the annexed district is the governing body of the city and that by using the due deliberation select P. C. Fredrickson as their representative. The people live as a mass, and the annexed district is the governing body of the city. The people live as a mass, and the annexed district is the governing body of the city.

SHOWS PROPER SPIRIT

As a citizen of the annexed district, I should like to see the city government in the hands of a body of men who are intelligent and interested in the welfare of the city. This gathering shows a proper spirit and a due appreciation of the situation before us. It is a very good sign that the people are so interested in the welfare of the city.

PERSONNEL OF KICKERS

Some men will say Oh politics are too corrupt and dirty. I want nothing to do with the business. Of course I say I have no time to bother with politics. I leave that for a man who has nothing better to do. I can have little to influence anyone.

But I have frequently told of that these very men these citizens who are so intelligent and interested in the welfare of the city. They are the governing body of the city and that by using the due deliberation select P. C. Fredrickson as their representative.

Pound Wis—"I am glad to announce that I have been cured of a disease which has troubled me for many years. I had been troubled with both for fourteen years and could not get any relief. At last using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier I can say I am a well woman. I can't find words to express my thanks for the good you have done for me.
